

The CASB PROGRAM

The CASB program offers five modules, each with eight weeks of distributed learning.

Each module has a three-day face-to-face interactive session and a one-day evaluation session.

TRAINING IN 2009

CASB is currently selecting potential facilitators for the upcoming 2009 year.

Training sessions for interested individuals will be offered in:

Calgary: Saturday, February 7th and Sunday, February 8th, 2009, and

Vancouver: Saturday, March 7th and Sunday, March 8th, 2009

To participate, CASB must receive your application by January 26th for the Calgary session and February 27th for the Vancouver session.

Applications can be found on the CASB website under FORMS.

Fax the completed form to Daina Vecmanis at 604-681-1523 or email it to contractpositions@casb.com.

What is challenging, demanding, rewarding and allows you to have an impact on the future of your profession?

Becoming a CASB Facilitator!

All CAs possess the basic skills and background experience to become involved in the CASB program.

We're looking for Chartered Accountants who would like to make a contribution to CA education and the profession.

This link: <http://www.casb.com/index.php?catid=81> will take you to our website page that contains answers to the most commonly asked questions about facilitating. Check out the Facilitator Brochure or the Recruitment FAQs.

At the upcoming training seminar you will have the opportunity to work with experienced facilitators and will be coached on how to facilitate for CASB. If you are interested in participating in this dynamic way of teaching, look for more information on the left side of this page.

Should you have additional questions, please email Douglas Parkhurst, CA at parkhurst@casb.com.

A previous informative and engaging facilitator training session.

CA School of Business
British Columbia • Alberta • Saskatchewan • Manitoba